

Dear FCC Official: Having access to0 a wide variety of sources for all types of goods and services i might need or want, I find it an intrusion into my precious time to have telemarketers call to try and sell me something. Because I do not like such intrusions I have signed up to the New Jersey do not call list and hope my wish will be respected.